BUSINESS ITEMS.

A large arrortment of all kinds of lumber, plastering lath, &c., may always be found at the "Pioneer Mills," of Capt. Henry Groe, on the Moshannon. Those who desire bills sawed, will find the Capt. a prompt bussiness men, and true to his promises.

Graham & Moyer caution the public against lifting any due bills or notes in the hands of their former Agent, Saml. Foster.

John Brubaker cautions all persons against interesting style. purchasing, or in any way meddling with a On motion it was resolved that a committee possession of P. H. Booz.

IT It is said that money is exceedingly tight, but nevertheless M. A. FRANK, has just purchased a large, new, and splendid assortment of Gentlemen's dress goods and ready made clothing. As Frank-is a pretty clever fellow, he deserves to be patronized. Store two doors East of Journal office.

F Mr. R. ARTHURS is a candidate for Congress in this district. See card.

The shoemaking business is prospering, and C. S. Black advertises for six journey men. Who wants a good berth?

OF Get your life insured, and thus insure to your family a sufficient competence in the event of your death. The Susquehanna Company at Harrisburg, offers every inducement. Dr. R. V. Winson of this place is the examining physician, and Dr. A. T. Schryver, is the agent for Clearfield county.

A horse, buggy, and harness, can be bought cheap of W. M. REEDY, at Curwens-

TA splendid and valuable lot of furniture, will be offered at public sale by F. P. HURXTHAL, at his residence in this place on the Tuesday of the Court. See card.

Our lady readers who desire to send to Philadelphia for Millinery, &c. &c., will find the establishment of JANE MILLER at No. 8 Henry Kephart. South Sixth St., upper side, where all orders | Morris tp., Peter Swartz, Geo. R. Diller, will be punctually attended to.

IF It will be seen in another column, that BLAIR & BARRETT have opened the MOUNT VERNON for the reception of visiters. We wish them abundant success, and have no doubt our Clearfield friends visiting the City, will call where they will always meet a warm and welcome reception.

Becure the shadow, 'ere the substance fades," and call at PURVIANCE'S Daguerrean Gallery on 2nd st., two doors north of Powell & Co's. Store.

To It is always a good plan for men in business to settle up their accounts regularly .-JAMES B. GRAHAM, adopting this course, calls | Wm. F. Green. peremptorily upon those having dealings with him to come forward and settle up.

Those of our farmers who have orchards, should procure one of Hickok's portable eider mills, which are represented as one of the very best articles of the kind ever invented. L. R. CARTER, is the agent in this place.

DT The time will soon be here, when our readers will require a good warm fire, beside which to enjoy the Journal, and they should look out for fuel, 'ere it arrives. Those desiring a good article of coal can obtain it on application to W. L. Moone, whose orders will be filled at his Coal Bank, adjoining town. See card.

Our friend BRIDGE, who is a clever fellow and deserving of patronage, has opened a Daguerrean Gallery, at Curwensville. He takes beautiful pictures, and we have no doubt those of our readers who give him a call, will receive entire satisfaction.

IF In another column it will be seen that a valuable farm, near New Washington, is offered at private sale, by Mr. John Shetter. This is a good piece of land, in a good locality, and possesses excellent and commodious improvements. See card.

The 'Corporal' in his perigrinatius a few days since, while searching for the Know Nothings,' observed a crowd pouring into the room next door to the Journal office. Of course he followed, but discovered the cause of attraction to be a splendid and cheap assortment of boots and shoes, recently opened there by C. S. Black. From the excellent quality of his work, the Corporal' come to the conclusion that CHARLEY did'nt belong to the Order.

It will be seen that D. W. Robbins & Co., at Lumber city, have dissolved partnership. The Books and accounts are in the hands of D. W. Robbins for settlement.

M. A. FRANK Esq, informs his friends and the public, that he has removed his business stand two doors east of the Journal office, in Graham's Row, where he will be happy to attend to those who may give him a call.

We call the attention of painters, and others to the fact, that a large and excellent supply of White Lead and Linseed Oil, has inst been received at Mossop & Pottaner's.

We request the attention of our readers to the card of Hughes & Invin in another column, the proprietors of the Tyrone City Hotel. Give them a call, when you visit Tyrone, if you wish to be well treated, and get acquainted with a couple of clever fellows.

Timperance Meeting. The Washingtonians and friends of Prohibition met in the Court House on Monday evening Sept 18th, 1841. Meeting opened by prayer by Geo. W. Rficem, Sr. It being egreed upon that the business of the Washingtonians be transacted first, the report of the committee appointed to procure tickets for the coming election, the chairman Dr. Rote, reported the printing of three thousand. The business of the Washingtonians being transacted, the prohibitory meeting was organized by Ellis Irwin taking the chair, as President, John Patchin and G. P. Gulich, Vice Presidents, and Geo. Geo. W. Rheem, Jr., Secretary. Mr. Samuel Linn was called on to address the meeting and did so by overthrowing all arguments that have ever been advanced against a Prohibitory Law, and proved conclusively that nothing short of total prohibition will satisfy the people of this State. He was followed by Judge Hale in his usual

WILLIAM POWELL,

August 9, 1854. MPORTANT TO FARMERS.—HICKOK'S PATENT IMPROVED CIDER MILL, AS AR-RANGED FOR 1854.—WARRANTED, IF DIRECTIONS ARE FOLLOWED, AND NOT OTHERWISE .- A Medal was awarded the Inventer from the World's Fair, New York.

It took the First Premium at the Pennsylvania State Fair, at Pittsburgh, 1853, and also of a large number of County Fairs.

Read the following certificate: JACKSTOWN, June 15, 1854. W. O. HICKOK :- SIR :- I have one of your Improved Cider Mills; I used the Mill last October, and on trial I ground fifty bushels of apples per hour. I keep the ground apples twelve hours, and I can press out two barrels of eider per hour with two men. I can recommend your Improved Cider Mill to all fruit growers, for speed and a saving of labor. I can make thirty-five gallons of cider from nine and a half bushels of common apples. The cider can be pressed from the pomace without using water now. Cider will keep one year when water is not used at the press.

JOHN M'COMBE. Farmers examine this newly Improved Mill beore you buy any other! From present indications it will be difficult to supply the demand, and persons wanting them had better send in their orders soon

The price of the Mill is $40. Upon application by mail, post paid, to the un-dersigned, at Tyrone, a pamphlet containing full particulars, will be sent. The Mills will be kept for sale at L. R. CAR-

TER'S, Clearfield, Pa. Address your orders to A. H. BOWMAN, Tyrone, Pa., sole Agent for Clearfield co. August 23, 1854.-3m
